This Will Be a "Pure Food" City When the Women Have Their Way

tive women, organized for the betterment

The pure food committee of the Woman's league has sent a communication to the Butchers & Grocers' association, as follows:

To Butchers & Grocers' association: To Butchers & Grocers' association: Following the instructions of the Woman's league, an organization of 200 representative women, organized for the betterment of communication to dust, flies and dogs.

While this may cause some small expense, the value in a few years to the health of our citizens, by living in a "pure food" city cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. Respectfully submitted.

Woman's "American" Club of Utah:

Dear Madam: I hereby acknowledge the receipt of your wired protest against the increase in the duty on hosiery and gloves, signed by yourself and Mrs. P. E. Connor as secretary. In reply permit me to say that the tariff bill must inevitably be unsatisfactory in some of its provisions to every section of the country.

The Payne bill will pass the house this week, and I am pleased to say that in the main it is a very satisfactory law.

This is the reply sent by Congressman Howell to the women of his home state who wired him in protest against the vicious increase in the tariff rates. After its reading yesterday, in view of the fact that Mr. Howell and his fellow members are to be allowed to guess again on the bill, it was decided to write him more fully on the subject and the secretary of the Woman's "American" club will do so with former adviser.
